ELO Digital Office and HP join forces at CeBIT

Following years of successful cooperation in Europe ELO Digital Office – Australia and HP Australia will join forces at this year's Sydney CeBIT. HP will present how a combination of HP hardware and ELO software will create a total document management solution to small, medium and large companies.

For many years HP and ELO Digital Office have provided bundled solutions to its clients in Europe. With ELO's local launch, this offer is now available in Australia.

"The CeBIT is the perfect platform to announce this partnership", said Rainer Krause, ELO's Australian Managing Director. "Together with our technical business partners and HP we will be able to show business owners and the general public that modern document management systems are affordable without sacrificing functionality."

In addition to HP ELO's stand at the CeBIT will feature AVOGA, BDSI, Fusion IT, GoSystems, Harms Consulting and ELO's newest business partner Business Back Office Pty Ltd.

Ben Ho, HP's Market Development Manager announced today: "After the CeBIT show, beginning from 17 May through to 17 July, 2006 HP will offer across selected scanners ELOoffice - Europe's leading document management solution for single users and smaller workgroups via redemption for the cost of postage & handling." A great step to provide comprehensive document management solutions to SME. A web link will be established during this targeted retail promotion.

HP is a technology solutions provider to consumers, businesses and institutions globally. The company's offerings span IT infrastructure, personal computing and access devices, global services and imaging and printing for consumers, enterprises and small and medium businesses. HP delivers vital technology for business and life. The company's solutions span IT infrastructure, personal computing and access devices, global services and imaging and printing for consumers, enterprises and small and medium business.

ELO Digital Office is one of the world's leading developers of document management and enterprise content management systems. Over 550,000 users and thousands of companies benefit from ELO DMS solutions.

ELO Digital Office and its Australian Business Partners exhibit its solutions at this year's Sydney CeBIT (May 9th to 11th - Hall 5 Stand T15)
